About This Book

This book comes from the seven children of R' Eliezer Zev Perlow and Miriam Perlow née Wiesner — Feigel (Cipi), R' Aharon (R' Ari) z"l, Hindy, Yanky, Chayie, Osher and Shmaya — and gathers what the records say about every line that leads up from them: the Perlows and Zditowskis of Chomsk, in today's Belarus, and, on their mother's side, the Wiesners of Gáva and Sajószentpéter with the Reichs of Kovácsvágás, the Braunfelds and Grosz family of Sajószentpéter, the Szenders of Hajdúdorog and Hajdúnánás with the Engels and Frieds, and the Glücks of Pápa, Bököny, Kemece and Nyírbátor with the Rózmans, Ornsteins and Fisches.

It is built from documents: civil and Jewish registers, censuses and conscriptions, ship lists and naturalization papers, newspapers, printed sefarim and their subscriber lists, and gravestones. Names are given in the form each record uses, with the familiar or Hebrew form beside it.

Every statement that could be doubted carries a quiet label, kept exactly as the research graded it:

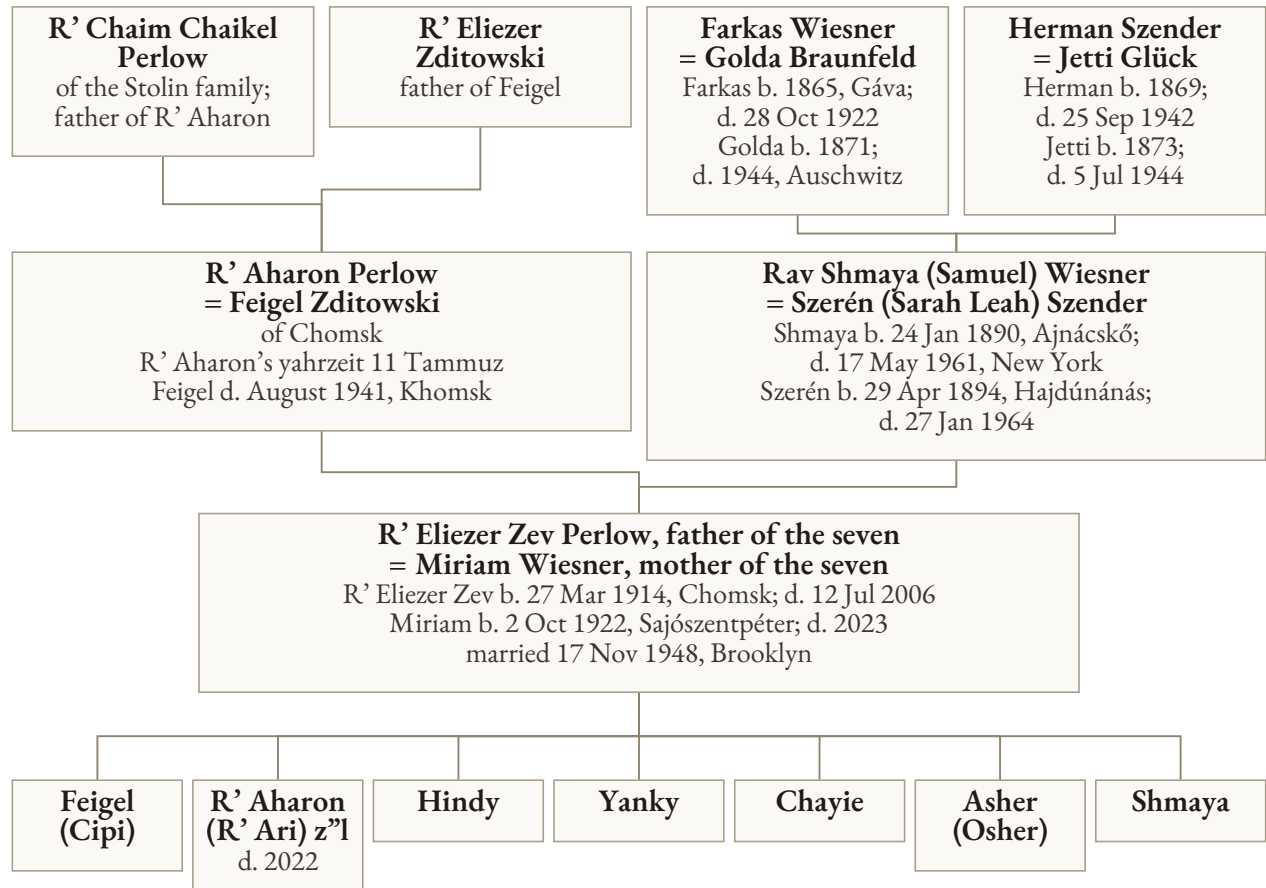

- | | |
|----------|---|
| PROVEN | Read on an original register, record or stone, or on an official index of one where that is stated. |
| PROBABLE | A strong record with one link inferred, or an index entry alone. |
| POSSIBLE | A family tradition, a tree, or a fit of name, place and date that no document yet confirms. |

Grades are never raised for the sake of a smoother story. Family members alive today appear by name and relation only. Those who perished in the Holocaust are remembered with the date and the place, and nothing more. Each image carries a line naming where it is held.

Questions that are still open are kept apart at the end of the book under Open Leads (Not Confirmed); none of them is drawn on a tree. The book follows the family website as it stood on 23 October 2026.

The Family at a Glance

The seven siblings, their parents, grandparents and great-grandparents

The direct line of the seven siblings. Years are those of the records; a dashed line marks a link that is probable rather than proven.

The Seven Children

The children of R' Eliezer Zev and Miriam Perlow

This book comes from the seven children of R' Eliezer Zev Perlow and his wife Miriam, née Wiesner — Feigel (Cipi), R' Aharon (R' Ari) z"l, Hindy, Yanky, Chayie, Osher and Shmaya — and is given by all of them together. It follows every line that leads up from them: the Perlows and Zditowskis of Chomsk; and, on their mother's side, the Wiesners and Reichs, the Braunfelds and Grosz family, the Szenders, Engels and Frieds, and the Glücks, Rózmans, Ornsteins and Fisches.

Perlow & Zditowski

Chomsk, in today's Belarus

Perlow & Zditowski — R' Eliezer Zev (Lejzer) Perlow (1914–2006)

Chomsk · Telekhany · Mir · Vilna · Kobe · Shanghai · Brooklyn

R' Eliezer Zev (Lejzer) Perlow was born in Chomsk on 27 March 1914, the son of R' Aharon Perlow and Feigel Zditowski, daughter of R' Eliezer Zditowski. R' Aharon was the son of R' Chaim Chaikel Perlow; the family memorial pages in Imrei Eliezer al HaTorah (Brooklyn 1995) give R' Aharon's yahrzeit as 11 Tammuz, of a year not yet known. Feigel died at Khomsk in August 1941; two of her daughters, Freida and Fruma, very probably died there the same year.

R' Chaim Chaikel had at least four children: R' Aharon; R' Asher, the blacksmith of Chomsk; Jacob Perlow of Telekhany (1884–1958), proven to be R' Eliezer's uncle by the 1941 Mir yeshiva list; and very probably Esther Dollinger of Brooklyn (1897–1945). Jacob lies in the plot of the Telechaner Swentiwohier society at Montefiore Cemetery, which ties the family to Telekhany, near Chomsk. In 1982 R' Eliezer wrote that his father was “of the family of the Stolin Rebbe” (proven as printed). On Feigel's side, the Zditowski clan of Khomsk can now be followed back to Leyzor son of Itsko, in the revision lists of 1806 and 1811 (probable).

How the family is related to Reb Aharon HaGadol of Karlin. R' Chaim Chaikel is R' Chaim, born in Stolin in 1852, son of R' Aharon Perlov of Stolin (b. 1826) — possible on the records, and confirmed by the family. R' Aharon of Stolin was the son of R' Chaim Chaikel of Haradnaja near Stolin (1807–52; probable), whose father R' Moshe Dov Ber (1779–1847, buried in Tiberias) was the STEPSON of the Stolin Rebbe R' Asher — that is how the Perlov name came into this line (proven as printed). The blood tie runs through R' Chaim Chaikel of Haradnaja's mother Beyla, a daughter of R' Moshe of Kobrin, Reb Aharon HaGadol's brother (probable). His first wife Devorah was Reb Aharon HaGadol's granddaughter, through his daughter Rivka; if she was the mother of R' Aharon (b. 1826), the family also descends from Reb Aharon HaGadol directly (possible). The source is a Stolin–Karlin journal, Kovetz Beit Aharon veYisrael no. 214 (2021), which prints the Stolin censuses and a 19th-century handwritten family tree by R' Shmuel Heller of Safed.

R' Eliezer learned at the Mir yeshiva and went with it into exile — Vilna, then Kobe (his name is on the Sugihara visa list of 6 August 1940, line 1231) and Shanghai — and landed at San Francisco on 14 September 1946. His elder brother HaRav Chaim Chaikel Perlov (1911–1996) also reached America. Their uncle Asher Perlow, the blacksmith of Chomsk, and his household died at Khomsk in 1941.

In Brooklyn on 17 November 1948 R' Eliezer married Miriam Wiesner at Gold Manor, 665 Willoughby Avenue; her father Rabbi Samuel (Shmaya) Wiesner officiated. He was naturalized in 1955 and died on 16 Tammuz 5766 (12 July 2006). They had seven children: Feigel (Cipi), R' Aharon (R' Ari) z”l, Hindy, Yanky, Chayie, Osher and Shmaya.

NEWLY FOUND RECORDS

R' Eliezer Zev Perlow's escape, from the original papers: Sugihara's visa register at Kaunas, line 1231, "Perlow Lejzor", Polish, transit visa, 6 August 1940; the Kobe register of Polish refugees has him arriving from Vilna on 13 February 1941 (no. 524: 27, of Chomsk, yeshiva student). · Proven

In Shanghai the Mir yeshiva's register (no. 164) records his Polish passport, issued there on 4 December 1941; the Jewish Agency's 1946 list of Shanghai refugees gives "Perlow Lejzer, 1914, Chomsk, Yeshivat-Mir, came 1941 from Lithuania via Siberia". · Proven

He sailed from Shanghai on 2 September 1946 on the SS General M. C. Meigs as "Perlow, Leizer, 32, rabbi, born Chomsk", on a non-quota visa as a minister of religion; the Young Israel of Cincinnati sponsored him. His 1955 naturalization petition (no. 534186) gives his home as 1424 49th Street, Brooklyn. · Proven

A memorial record (item 6577714), from a card file of Jewish refugees from Poland 1939–1941, lists Eliezer Perlow, born 1913, of Chomsk, in Wilno during the war, a refugee. · Proven

Esther (Annie) Dollinger née Perloff, the probable sister of R' Aharon, died in Brooklyn on 25 August 1945 (New York City death certificate 16705) and was buried the next day at King Solomon Cemetery, New Jersey, as the certificate records. · Proven

Her husband Max (Mendel) Dollinger: in the 1940 census he lived in Brooklyn with his children Clare, Herman and Sidney. · Proven

Max Dollinger died in July 1974 in Nassau County, New York (Social Security Death Index; the birth date, 13 June 1892, matches his naturalization). · Probable

In the winter of 1983 R' Menashe Klein, the Ungvarer Rav, answered R' Eliezer Zev Perlow in writing on the Shehecheyanu blessing on the second night of Sukkos, calling him "author of Imrei Eliezer in two volumes" (Mishne Halachos vol. 19, siman 79). · Proven

Shleoma (Solomon) Perlof (d. 1951) in the Telekhany society plot at Montefiore, two rows from Jacob Perlow — a possible relative. POSSIBLE

Burials found: R' Eliezer Zev and HaRav Chaim Chaikel side by side on the Mount of Olives; Jacob Perlow at Montefiore, Queens; Ike, Victor, Rebecca and Morris Zitowsky in the Chomsker Young Men's plot at Mount Zion, Queens (with Adolph Smith and Kate Barr, Probable); Herman Dollinger's dates, 1918–1990 (Probable). · Proven

Reb Aharon HaGadol of Karlin: the family are his blood relatives through R' Chaim Chaikel of Haradnaja's mother Beyla, daughter of R' Moshe of Kobrin, Reb Aharon HaGadol's brother. Direct descent through R' Chaim Chaikel's first wife Devorah, Reb Aharon HaGadol's granddaughter, is possible. · Probable

R' Moshe Dov Ber (d. Tiberias 1847) was the stepson of the Stolin Rebbe R' Asher, not his son: R' Asher's own letter calls him "my wife's son". His father was R' Aharon "HaShotek" of Zelichov. · Proven

HaRav Chaim Chaikel Perlow's years in Soviet camps: a Soviet repression record reads "Perlovsky, Khaim Aronovich, born 1911, Warsaw", a watchman, arrested 30 September 1944, sentenced in October 1945 to eight years in the camps, rehabilitated in May 1989 (Book of Memory of Samara oblast). Name, father's name, birth year and birthplace all match his own US record, and his gravestone speaks of ten years in Siberia. · Probable

Novominsk: a Stolin–Karlin journal shows the Novominsk Perlows descending from the Stolin Rebbe R' Asher through two women — his daughter Perel, mother of R' Shlomo Chaim Perlov of Koidanov, and the Koidanover's daughter Sarah Devorah, mother of R' Yaakov of Novominsk (1847–1902). How our own line meets them is still possible only (see Leads). · Probable

Jennie (Zlate) Smith's arrival, read on the original ship list: SS Statendam, New York, 2 July 1907 — "Sitowka, Zlote", 15, of Chomsk; nearest relative at home "W. Sitowski, Chomsk – Grodno"; going to her "brother Idel Sitowsky, 390 Grand Street, New York". · Proven

A Chomsk Zditowski household, from the 1907, 1910 and 1912 ship lists and two New York marriage records: Yehoshua (Shiye) Zditowsky and his wife Beile (Velje) née Shershevsky, born c.1858 at Pružany, with their children Chane (b. c.1881), Idel, Katie, Adolf, Zlate (Jennie, b. 1893), Note (b. c.1894), Israel (b. c.1896), Iser and Leiser. Note's 1910 line reads "mother Velje Zditowski, Homsk"; in 1911 Chane named her "mother Beile Zitowski, Chomsk", and in 1912 Beile sailed to her "husband Schie" in New York. They are cousins of Feigel, not her own parents or sisters. · Probable

David Smith (Zditowski) of Baltimore, who called Feigel his cousin: his gravestone reads "David son of R' Shalom" (died 4 Adar 5716, 16 February 1956), and his wife's "Teme daughter of R' Aryeh Shmuel" (died 6 Tevet 5701, 5 January 1941). In 1912 Shiye's wife named Teme as her sister-in-law, so David and Shiye were probably brothers, both sons of Shalom. · Proven

A Soviet-era list of the Jewish families of the Telekhany district who perished in 1941–1943 names the Perlovs of Telekhany: Leiba b. 1886, Mordukh b. 1913, Khaim and Gavril b. 1921, and Aharon b. 1911 with his two children (b. 1931 and 1933). Their relation to Jacob Perlow and R' Aharon is not known. · Proven

Warsaw: the indexed Warsaw Jewish registers hold no marriage of Aharon Perlow and Feigel Zditowska and no 1911 birth of Chaim Perlow. Many Warsaw books for 1909–1911 are not online, so Warsaw is not ruled out.

R' Eliezer Zev's own introduction to Imrei Eliezer (New York, 1982), p. 12: his father R' Aharon son of R' Chaim Chaikel Perlow was "of the family of the Stolin Rebbe", and his mother Feigel daughter of R' Eliezer traced her line "to the family of the Vilna Gaon's sister, from Kosov". Both are the family's printed claims; the exact links are unproven. · Proven

The 1989 memorial page in Imrei Eliezer vol. 3: R' Aharon son of R' Chaim Chaikel, died 11 Tammuz; Feigel daughter of R' Eliezer with her daughters Hinda, Freida and Fruma — Khomsk, 9 Av 5701 (2 August 1941). · Proven

HaPardes (Chicago), September 1941: no. 9 on the Mir yeshiva's list of students who escaped to Japan is "Eliezer Perlov — Chomsk". · Proven

Jacob Perlow of Telekhany (1884–1958) was R' Eliezer Zev's uncle: the 1941 Mir yeshiva aid list (row 26) names "uncle Jakob Perlow, 108 4th Str., New York" — the address on Jacob's 1942 draft card. So Jacob was R' Aharon's brother and a son of R' Chaim Chaikel. · Proven

The 1932 Polesie provincial gazette lists "Perlow Chaim-Lejb, parents Oszer and Judesa, born 1910, Pohost-Zahorodzki" — the son of R' Asher and Yehudit Perlow of Chomsk, brother of the siblings' grandfather R' Aharon. The same entry is repeated in the gazette of January 1933. · Probable

HaRav Chaim Chaikel Perlow's US Social Security record names his parents "Aaron Perlow and Faiga Zditovska" (birthplace given as Warsaw). · Probable

Kaunas, 25 February 1893, read on the original register: "Khomsk townsman Itsko son of Shmerko Zditovskii, bachelor, 25" married Nekhama-Beila Upiter, 18 — "uncle Ike" Zitowsky of Brooklyn, of Feigel's Zditowski clan. · Proven

The Zditowski clan of Khomsk goes back two more generations: the 1806 and 1811 revision lists show Leyzor (Eliezer) son of Itsko "Zditovets", whose grandsons Itsko (b. c.1796) and Leyba (b. c.1803) head the only two Zditowski lines of 1850. The whole clan very probably descends from him; Feigel's exact line to him is not yet proven. · Probable

More Zditowski cousins in America: Esther Zitowsky Davidoff (b. Chomsk 1898, d. 1981), daughter of uncle Ike; Boris (Dov) Zditowski (1914–1993, El Paso) of the Motol branch; and the Baltimore Smiths, children of David Zditowski, "cousin" of Feigel. Their exact relation to Feigel is not known. · Probable

The Stolin revision list of 20 June 1816 shows the Perlov household of the Stolin Rebbe R' Asher ("Osher Aronov Perlov", 55), with Movsha Ber Aronov and his son Khaikel Simkha, 9 (b. c.1807). This is the Stolin Chaim Chaikel line; no record yet ties our family to it. · Proven

No Perlov is listed at Pohost-Zahorodzki in the revision lists of 1811 and 1816, so the Perlovs of Pohost came there later. · Proven

R' Eliezer Zev Perlow's own words, 1982: his father R' Aharon son of R' Chaim Chaikel Perlow was "of the family of the Rebbe of Stolin" and died young; his mother Feigel daughter of R' Eliezer traced her descent to the family of the Vilna Gaon's sister, of Kosov; his brother R' Chaim Chaikel brought him from Soviet Russia into Lithuania. (The Stolin kinship is the family's printed claim; the exact link is unproven.)

בסמוך לציוני תלמידי הבעש"ט רבי אברהם מקאליסק ורבי זאב וולף מושרני אוסטרסה. על מצבתו נכתב⁵⁶: 'פ"נ א"ת וישר וחסיד מ"ו משה דוב בה"ר החסיד אהרן, ואחיו של הרה"צ ר' אהרן הגדול⁵⁷ מקרלין זצוק"ל, נפטר י"ב אב תר"ז תנצב"ה⁵⁸. [במפקד תקצ"ד (1834) נכתב שנפטר אז בשנת תקצ"ד, וברור שאין זה נכון].

מזן רבי אשר מסטאלין אביו חורגו של רבי משה בער חניך אותו לייחד את דרכו לפני ה', ומסופר (ברכת אהרן עמ' ג', פרי ישע אהרן עמ' לב) שפעם אחת בילדותו ישב רבי משה בער ליד אביו חורגו רבי אשר מסטאלין, ונשפכו מעט מים על השלחן, ונגע רבי משה בער באצבעו במים, ורשם משהו על השלחן כדרך הילדים, אז לקח רבי אשר את ידו, והכה אותו על השלחן עד זוב דם. ואמר אליו ברתת: וויפיהל מאהל האב איך דיר גילערינט, אז מען זאהל נישט רירין מיט קיין אבר, נאר פאר גא-ט'ס וועגין, ולייחד בזה לשם ה'. [כמה פעמים לימדתי אותך שלא להזיז שום אבר, רק בשביל דרכי ה' ולייחד בזה לשם ה'].

R' Moshe Dov Ber's Tiberias gravestone ("son of R' Aharon, brother of the Rebbe R' Aharon of Karlin", d. 12 Av 1847), and R' Asher of Stolin's letter calling him "my wife's son": R' Moshe Ber was R' Asher's stepson.

זוגתו מרת מרים (זיוו"ר) בת רבי שלמה מקארלין⁶²

זוגתו מרת בייל'ה (זיוו"ש) בת רבי משה מקוברין אחיו של רבי אהרן הגדול מקארלין⁶³. נולדה בשנת תקמ"ו (במפקד תקע"ו 1816) בת 30 שנה, לא מוזכרת במפקדים נוספים). מרת בייל'ה נפטרה לפני שנת תקפ"ג - שהרי בשנה זו (לפי מפקד תקצ"ד 1834)) נולדה נכדתה בייל'ה הורביץ, בת בנה ר' חיים חייקל, שנקראה על שמה. יש לציין שבמפקד מונטיפיורי בטבריה תרכ"ו (1866) נכתב שמרת בייל'ה הורביץ נולדה בשנת תקפ"א.

זוגתו מרת בריינא (זיוו"ש"ל) נולדה בשנת תקמ"ט (במפקד מונטיפיורי בטבריה תר"ט 1849) בת 60 שנה⁶⁴.

R' Moshe Ber's wives. The second, Beyla (b. c.1786), mother of R' Chaim Chaikel of Haradnaja, is given as a daughter of R' Moshe of Kobrin, brother of Reb Aharon HaGadol — the family's blood tie to Reb Aharon HaGadol.

R' Eliezer Zev (Lejzer) Perlow PROVEN

father of the seven siblings

BORN	27 Mar 1914, Chomsk
DIED	12 Jul 2006 (16 Tammuz 5766)
LIVED	Chomsk · Mir yeshiva (Vilna, Kobe, Shanghai) · San Francisco 1946 · Brooklyn
PARENTS	R' Aharon Perlow and Feigel Perlow née Zditowski
MARRIED	Miriam Perlow née Wiesner
CHILDREN	Asher (Osher) Perlow; Feigel (Cipi) Perlow; Hindy Perlow; Yanky Perlow; Chayie Perlow; Shmaya Perlow; R' Aharon (R' Ari) Perlow
NOTES	Studied at the Mir yeshiva and travelled with it through Vilna, Kobe and Shanghai; landed at San Francisco on 14 Sep 1946. Married Miriam Wiesner on 17 Nov 1948 at Gold Manor, 665 Willoughby Ave, Brooklyn; her father Rabbi Samuel (Shmaya) Wiesner officiated. Naturalized EDNY 19 Apr 1955. Rav of Chevrat Geulah veYeshuah, Boro Park. His gravestone reads “HaRav HaGaon R' Eliezer Zev son of R' Aharon Perlow, author of Imrei Eliezer on the Shas, rav of Chevrat Geulah veYeshuah in New York, of the senior students of the Mir yeshiva in Poland and in exile in Shanghai” (Proven as inscribed). He received semicha in 1962 from R' Eliezer Yehuda Finkel, rosh yeshiva of Mir in Jerusalem (Proven: the letter is reproduced in the Mir yeshiva newsletter no. 541). Burial: Mount of Olives, Jerusalem — Chasidim chevra kadisha, block America North, plot ז_נ, row 1, grave 4, beside his brother HaRav Chaim Chaikel Perlov (grave 3) (Proven). In the winter of 1983 R' Menashe Klein, the Ungvarer Rav, answered him in writing on the Shehecheyanu blessing on the second night of Sukkos, addressing him as “my dear friend ... the Gaon R' Eliezer Zev Perlow, author of Imrei Eliezer in two volumes” (Mishne Halachos vol. 19, siman 79; Proven). Wartime papers and route: Sugihara's visa register, Kaunas, line 1231 reads “Perlow Lejzor”, Polish, transit visa, 6 August 1940 (Proven, register scan). A memorial record (item 6577714), from a card file of Jewish refugees from Poland, 1939–1941, lists Eliezer Perlow, born 1913, of Chomsk, in Wilno during the war, a refugee (Proven as recorded). The 1940 Vilna refugee aid list (no. 7614) and the register of Polish refugees at Kobe, February 1941 (no. 524), name Lejzer Perlow, 27, of Chomsk, a yeshiva student who reached Kobe from Vilna on 13 February 1941 (Proven). In Shanghai the Mir yeshiva's own register (no. 164) records a Polish passport issued to him there on 4 December 1941, and in 1946 his American sponsor was the Young Israel of Cincinnati (UNRRA China Office file S-1132-0000-0181; Proven). The Jewish Agency's 1946 list of refugees in Shanghai reads “Perlow Lejzer 1914 Chomsk Yeshivat-Mir 41 Lithuania via Siberia” (La-karov ve-la-rachok, 3 Oct 1946, p. 3; Proven). He sailed from Shanghai on 2 September 1946 on the SS General M. C. Meigs as “Perlow, Leizer, 32, rabbi, born Chomsk”, with a non-quota visa as a minister of religion issued at Shanghai (passenger list 28, line 25; Proven). On 30 October 1946 he registered for the draft at Rockaway Beach, New York, born 27 March 1914 at Chomsk, a rabbi (Proven). His naturalization petition, no. 534186, filed 4 March 1955, gives his home as 1424 49th Street, Brooklyn, and his work as rabbi; certificate no. 7430257 (Proven). Birth year, two readings kept: 27 March 1914 on his 1946 draft card and 1955 petition (and 1914 on the 1946 Shanghai list); 1913 on the 1939–41 refugee card file and the 1940 Vilna list. Both stay noted until a birth record settles it.

R' Aharon Perlow PROVEN

the siblings' grandfather

DIED	11 Tammuz (year unknown)
LIVED	Chomsk
PARENTS	R' Chaim Chaikel Perlow
MARRIED	Feigel Perlow née Zditowski
CHILDREN	R' Eliezer Zev (Lejzer) Perlow; HaRav Chaim Chaikel Perlov; Freida (Frejdke) Perlow; Fruma Perlow
NOTES	Names proven. His yahrzeit is 11 Tammuz (the family memorial page reads "died 11 Tammuz"; no year printed). The earlier "21 Tammuz" was a misreading.
RECORDS	Imrei Eliezer al HaTorah (Brooklyn 1995), memorial page; NUMIDENT of his son Chaim (parents Aaron Perlow × Faiga Zditovska); 1948 marriage licence

R' Chaim Chaikel Perlow PROVEN

the siblings' great-grandfather

PARENTS	R' Aharon Perlov of Stolin
CHILDREN	R' Aharon Perlow; Asher Perlow; Jacob (Yankel) Perlow; Esther "Annie" Dollinger née Perloff

NOTES	Name proven from the family memorial pages (“R’ Aharon son of R’ Chaim Chaikel Perlow”, 1989 and 1995). His children: R’ Aharon, R’ Asher, Jacob of Telekhany (proven through the 1941 Mir yeshiva list) and very probably Esther Dollinger, whose 1945 death certificate names her parents Hyman and Hilda. His son wrote in 1982 that the family was “of the family of the Stolin Rebbe” (proven as printed). He is R’ Chaim, born 5612 (1852), son of R’ Aharon Perlov of Stolin, “named for his grandfather R’ Chaim Chaikel”: Possible on the records (no record of him after 1874), and confirmed by the family (October 2026). Through that line the family are blood relatives of Reb Aharon HaGadol of Karlin.
RECORDS	Imrei Eliezer (New York 1982, 1989; Brooklyn 1995); 1941 Mir yeshiva list; 1942 draft card; Kovetz Beit Aharon veYisrael no. 214 (Jerusalem 2021; HebrewBooks 68743), p. ㄀ note 90

R’ Eliezer Zditowski

the siblings’ great-grandfather

CHILDREN	Feigel Perlow née Zditowski
NOTES	Feigel is “daughter of R’ Eliezer” (family memorial pages). He belonged to the Khomsk Zditowski clan, which very probably descends from Leyzor son of Itsko (revision lists of 1806 and 1811). Which Zditowski he was is not yet known; a Leizer b. c.1829 in the 1850 list is a possible candidate.

R’ Aharon Perlov of Stolin PROBABLE

the siblings’ 2nd-great-grandfather

BORN	5586 (1826)
DIED	before 1874
LIVED	Stolin
PARENTS	R’ Chaim Chaikel (Simcha) Perlov of Haradnaja
CHILDREN	R’ Chaim Chaikel Perlow
NOTES	Son of R’ Chaim Chaikel of Haradnaja (probable: in his father’s household in the 1850 Stolin census). Wives Freydla (1850) and Esther Feiga (his widow in 1874). Children in the censuses as printed: Devorah (1848), R’ Moshe Yosef (1852–93, Tiberias), R’ Chaim (b. 5612/1852, “named for his grandfather R’ Chaim Chaikel”), Feiga (1859), Avraham Yaakov (1866). Whether his mother was Devorah, granddaughter of Reb Aharon HaGadol, is Possible: the journal’s author doubts it, but he named his first daughter Devorah.
RECORDS	Kovetz Beit Aharon veYisrael no. 214 (Jerusalem 2021; HebrewBooks 68743), pp. ㄀–㄀, notes 87–90 (1850 and 1874 Stolin censuses as printed)

R’ Chaim Chaikel (Simcha) Perlov of Haradnaja PROBABLE

the siblings’ 3rd-great-grandfather

BORN	5567 (1807)
DIED	5613 (1852/53)
LIVED	Haradnaja, near Stolin
PARENTS	R’ Moshe Dov Ber and Beyla
MARRIED	Devorah
CHILDREN	R’ Aharon Perlov of Stolin

NOTES	Av beit din of Haradnaja near Stolin. Through his mother Beyla, a daughter of R' Moshe of Kobrin, brother of Reb Aharon HaGadol of Karlin, he and all his descendants are blood relatives of Reb Aharon HaGadol (Probable). His first wife Devorah was a granddaughter of Reb Aharon HaGadol (Probable); his second wife was Bluma. His brother R' Mordechai, son-in-law and successor of R' Noach of Lechovitch, was a Lechovitch rebbe (Probable as printed).
RECORDS	Kovetz Beit Aharon veYisrael no. 214 (Jerusalem 2021; HebrewBooks 68743), pp. קנ"ד–קס"ז, notes 57–90; R' Shmuel Heller of Safed's handwritten family tree (19th c.) as transcribed in note 63; Kovetz no. 10 (HebrewBooks 13094) p. פ"ב

Beyla PROBABLE

the siblings' 4th-great-grandmother

BORN	5546 (c.1786)
DIED	before 5594 (1834)
PARENTS	R' Moshe of Kobrin
MARRIED	R' Moshe Dov Ber
CHILDREN	R' Chaim Chaikel (Simcha) Perlov of Haradnaja
NOTES	Second wife of R' Moshe Ber and mother of R' Chaim Chaikel of Haradnaja. Daughter of R' Moshe of Kobrin, brother of Reb Aharon HaGadol of Karlin (Probable: two printed witnesses; Hebrew Wikipedia names a different father, R' David Halperin).

R' Moshe Dov Ber PROVEN

the siblings' 4th-great-grandfather

BORN	5539 (1779)
DIED	12 Av 5607 (1847), Tiberias
LIVED	Stolin · Tiberias
MARRIED	Beyla
CHILDREN	R' Chaim Chaikel (Simcha) Perlov of Haradnaja
NOTES	Son of R' Aharon "HaShotek" of Zelichov and Feiga. Feiga later married R' Asher of Stolin, so R' Moshe Ber was R' Asher's STEPSON, not his son (Proven as printed: R' Asher's own letter calls him "my wife's son"). His Tiberias gravestone calls him "brother of R' Aharon of Karlin": his half-brother through Feiga, the Beit Aharon, not Reb Aharon HaGadol. The Perlov surname came to this line through R' Asher's household. The 1816 Stolin revision list has him as "Movsha Ber Aronov". Burial: Tiberias (12 Av 5607 = 1847); the stone reads "brother of R' Aharon of Karlin" (Proven).

Wiesner & Reich

Gáva, Sajószentpéter and Kovácsvágás

Wiesner & Reich — Miriam Perlow née Wiesner (1922–2023)

Sátoraljaújhely · Gáva · Kovácsvágás · Ajnácskő · Sajószentpéter · Munich · New York

Miriam Wiesner Perlow was born at Sajószentpéter on 2 October 1922, the daughter of Rav Shmaya (Samuel, Samu) Wiesner (1890–1961) and Szerén (Sarah Leah) Szender. Rav Shmaya, born at Ajnácskő, wrote for the Orthodox press of the 1920s as “Wiesner Samu, Sajószentpéter”; he came to America in 1939, and from 1941 his house and shul stood at 1424 49th Street, Brooklyn.

His father Farkas (Wolf, Ze’ev) Wiesner was born at Gáva in 1865 and married Golda (Gizella) Braunfeld at Sajószentpéter in December 1887; he died there in 1922. Farkas was the son of Antal (Naftali Tzvi) Wiesner and Blüme Reich, who married in 1855; Antal ended his days in Jerusalem in 1907. Blüme was the daughter of R’ Wolf Reich, a wool merchant of Kovácsvágás, born at Nyíri on 4 April 1794, who died on 11 February 1864, and of his wife Mushkat (Muszkat), born at Nagyida on 7 September 1797, who died at Pusztafalu on 20 April 1864 — the marriage original reads “Miskat”, correcting the earlier “Mikal”, and the exact dates come from an 1857 census printed in Alei Zikaron 63 (Probable, high). Blüme’s sister Eszter married Rabbi Sámuel Krausz of Kovácsvágás.

Antal’s father was the elder Shmaya (Sámuel) Wiesner of Gáva, born about December 1802 at Sátoraljaújhely, who died at Gáva in 1862; he married at least three times. Antal’s mother Rozália, born at Csaba, was very probably a daughter of the Pri Tzadik, R’ Meir Avraham of Csaba (d. 1829) — the 1839 printing of the Pri Tzadik names “my brother-in-law R’ Shmaya” of Gáva among its subscribers. The Pri Tzadik’s wife was Frumet Pessel Benet (Probable), who died at Miskolc in 1845, daughter of R’ Gabriel Benet of Cífer and Rebeka of Nikolsburg; his own father, in his handwriting, was “R’ Yosef called Yozpa ... at Cífer”.

The Pri Tzadik was buried at Hejőcsaba, near Miskolc — this is now proven: a letter of 1971, printed in “A miskolci Avas” (1993), asks that the graves of “rabbi Meir Avraham (Pri Cadik) and his wife” be moved to Miskolc separately, and a book of 1970 describes a visit to his grave there. Whether the four old stones now standing in parcel VIII of the Avas cemetery in Miskolc are his and his wife’s is possible only.

Of Rav Shmaya’s ten brothers and sisters, several died at Auschwitz in June 1944, as did their mother Golda; Ignác, Béla, Gyula and the youngest, Antal (Naftali Tzvi), survived.

NEWLY FOUND RECORDS

Berta (Blimi) and Sándor Reinitz had three children, all born at Sajószentpéter: Vilmos (Ze’ev), b. 1927; Magda, b. 3 December 1928; and Ábrahám Adolf, b. 1930. Several memorial records name both parents (Proven). All three died at Auschwitz, 13 June 1944 (Probable). · Proven

Munich: on 1 November 1928 the community agreed to appoint Rav Shmaya its dayan; from January 1929 he ran the Talmud-Thora school; and on 5 September 1931 he spoke at the dedication of the new synagogue of the Eastern-Jewish congregations Linath Hazedek and Agudath Achim at Reichenbachstraße 27, after Rabbi Ehrentreu and before Rabbi Baerwald (Bayerische Israelitische Gemeindezeitung, 15 Sept 1931). In 1933 the community's yearbook lists him as one of its four rabbis. A 2021 photo of the synagogue building is now in the gallery. · Proven

25 December 1925: in the Orthodox weekly Zsidó Újság, Rav Shmaya ("Wiesner Samu, Sajószentpéter") writes on the problems of the yeshivas: students should learn more, the long breaks should be shortened, the existing yeshivas strengthened, and every community should have a local group of the National Tomché Jesivosz Association. On 15 January 1926 two readers' letters answer him. · Probable

Böske (Erzsébet) Winyik's five children Vilmos, Ágnes, Éva, Zoltán and Klára and her husband Dezső Winyik (1942 Salvadoran certificate; deaths at Auschwitz, June 1944, Probable); first portraits of Dávid (Dezső) Wiesner, Berta (Blimi) Reinitz and Sándor Reinitz. · Proven

The Pri Tzadik's sons-in-law R' Pinchas David of Kótaj (d. Jerusalem 13 Dec 1878) and R' Shimon Lieberman, rav of Szenna, from the 1839 book p. 95; his yahrzeit 26 Elul 5589 (24 Sep 1829); R' Yitzchak Yosef Blich of Gáva as Possible (son-in-law or grandson); Dávid (Dezső) Wiesner sourced — bookkeeper in Miskolc, died Auschwitz 16 or 17 June 1944. · Probable

Antal (Naftali Tzvi) Wiesner's life from Alei Zikaron 67 (2025); Béla and Ilona's children Vilmos, Robert, Hedvig, Aurél and Noémi (Probable, high) and daughters Alice and Judith; Sándor Reinitz, Berta's husband; burials of Rav Shmaya and Szerén (Woodbridge), Farkas (Sajószentpéter) and Antal (Mount of Olives, 1907). · Proven

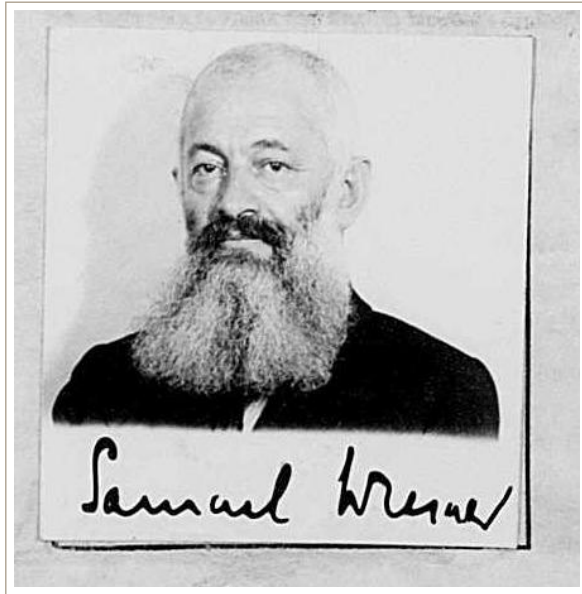

Rav Shmaya's son Willy (Vilmos, Zev) Wiesner, the siblings' uncle, was chairman of the board and president of Yeshiva Torah Temimah in Brooklyn, president of the Shmaya School for the hearing-impaired in Israel and chairman of Project RISE (The Jewish Observer, 1982 and March 1985, which calls him "the son of ... Rabbi Shmaya Wiesner"). · Proven

The Pri Tzadik's wife Frumit Pessel is named in his own book: on p. 90 of Pri Tzadik (1839) his son-in-law, the publisher, remembers "my mother-in-law ... Mrs. Frumit Pessel, may she live". · Proven

The Pri Tzadik's daughter who married R' Shimon Lieberman: a Lieberman family-history website names her Malka (one family-compiled source). On the tree her name stays unknown. POSSIBLE

A jesivák problémái.

A Zsidó Ujság értünk és szent ügyünkért harcol, felvette programjába a jesivák támogatását is. A feladat oly nagy, hogy ezt csakis jól megszervezett nagy tekintélyű országos egyesület tudja megoldani, de oly magasztos is, hogy minden orth. zsidó kellő felvilágosítás után örömet fogja kivenni részét ugy a munkából, mint az áldozatokból.

Rav Shmaya (Samuel, Samu) Wiesner PROVEN

the siblings' grandfather

BORN	24 Jan 1890, Ajnácskő
DIED	17 May 1961, New York
LIVED	Sajószentpéter · Munich · Miami/New York 1939 · Brooklyn (1424 49th St)
PARENTS	Farkas (Wolf, Vilmos, Ze'ev) Wiesner and Golda (Gizella) Wiesner née Braunfeld
MARRIED	Szerén (Sarah Leah) Wiesner née Szender
CHILDREN	Miriam Perlow née Wiesner; Willy (Vilmos, Zev) Wiesner
NOTES	Rabbi. Married Szerén Szender at Hajdúnánás on 11 Feb 1919. Wrote in the Orthodox weekly Zsidó Újság (1925, signed "Wiesner Samu, Sajószentpéter"). Came to America in 1939; his house and shul from 1941 were at 1424 49th Street, Brooklyn. Buried Beth Israel, Woodbridge NJ. Burial: Beth Israel Cemetery (Woodbridge Memorial Gardens), Woodbridge NJ; "HaRav HaGadol R' Shmaya son of R' Ze'ev Wiesner", 2 Sivan 5721 = 17 May 1961; the stone also remembers his mother "Golda bat R' Yitzchak, 22 Sivan 5704"; beside his wife (Proven, stone). Munich (Proven, from the community press): on 1 November 1928 the community agreed to appoint "Rabbiner Wiesner aus Breslau" its dayan; from January 1929 he ran the Talmud-Thora school (about 80 children in 1935); he was the rabbi of the Eastern-Jewish synagogue on Reichenbachstraße 27, speaking at its cornerstone-laying in May 1931 and at its dedication on 5 September 1931, when he joined his blessings to an explanation of the Sages' complementary views on the foundations of Jewish teaching (Bayerische Israelitische Gemeindezeitung, 15 Sept 1931). In 1933 the community's yearbook lists him as one of its four rabbis, at Sofienstraße 5c. He sat on the ritual and welfare committees and taught Mishnah at the community's Lehrhaus until 1937. His Zsidó Újság article of 25 December 1925, "A jesivák problémái", signed "Wiesner Samu, Sajószentpéter" (identification Probable), argues that yeshiva students should learn more, the long breaks be shortened, the existing yeshivas strengthened, and every community have a local group of the National Tomché Jesivosz Association; on 15 January 1926 two readers' letters answered him, and one congregation wrote that it had re-founded its group under the influence of his article.

Mushkat (Muszkat, Miskat) Reich מושקט PROVEN

the siblings' 3rd-great-grandmother

BORN	7 Sep 1797 (16 Elul 5557), Nagyida
DIED	20 Apr 1864 (14 Nisan 5624), Pusztafalu
PARENTS	Samuel
MARRIED	Wolf (Aron Wolf, Farkas) Reich
CHILDREN	Blüme (Betti, Berta) Wiesner née Reich; Eszter Reich (Krausz)
NOTES	Blüme's mother. The 1855 marriage original reads "Miskat", not "Mikal" (Proven as written). Her birth and death dates, from an 1857 census printed in Alei Zikaron 63, are Probable (high); her death at her son Avraham's house at Pusztafalu, ten weeks after Wolf, matches the register. Her father possibly Samuel. Farkas Wiesner's little sister Müskitt bore her name.
RECORDS	1855 Kovácsvágás marriage (original); Füzer-district deaths 1864; Alei Zikaron 63 (2023) pp.33–35

Rozália Wiesner PROVEN

the siblings' 3rd-great-grandmother

BORN	c.1806, Csaba
PARENTS	R' Meir Avraham of Csaba, the "Pri Tzadik" and Frumet Pessel (Pepi) Benet
MARRIED	Shmaya (Sámuel) Wiesner of Gáva
CHILDREN	Antal (Anton, Naftali Tzvi) Wiesner
NOTES	Antal's mother; 42 in the 1848 census, born at Csaba. Daughter of the Pri Tzadik — Probable (high). She was not Shmaya's widow: his wife at his death in 1862 was Rebeka; Rozália either is the same woman or died c. 1849–54. Her maiden name stays open (1848 "Roth" vs. "Benet").

Shmaya (Sámuel) Wiesner of Gáva PROVEN

the siblings' 3rd-great-grandfather

BORN	c. Dec 1802, Sátorajújhely
DIED	16 Sep 1862, Gáva
MARRIED	Rozália Wiesner
CHILDREN	Antal (Anton, Naftali Tzvi) Wiesner
NOTES	Rav of Gáva; brother-in-law of the Pri Tzadik's family (the 1839 subscriber list names "my brother-in-law R' Shmaya" of Gáva; Alei Zikaron 66 calls him "chatan of the Pri Tzadik"). He had at least three wives: Léni Weisz, Rozália (Antal's mother; maiden name open), and Rebeka Lieberman (proven from their daughter Dine's 1920 civil death). He was married at his death in 1862. Burial: Gáva Jewish cemetery (died 16 Sep 1862); his stone is not identified (place Probable).
RECORDS	1848 census; his son Antal's 1855 marriage ("Samu, Rozy") and stone

Wolf (Aron Wolf, Farkas) Reich PROVEN*the siblings' 3rd-great-grandfather*

BORN	4 Apr 1794 (4 Nisan 5554), Nyíri
DIED	11 Feb 1864, Kovácsvágás
PARENTS	Josef Reich
MARRIED	Mushkat (Muszkat, Miskat) Reich
CHILDREN	Blüme (Betti, Berta) Wiesner née Reich; Eszter Reich (Krausz)
NOTES	Wool merchant of Kovácsvágás. Proven as Blüme's father (1855 marriage); his exact dates come from an 1857 census printed in Alei Zikaron 63 — Probable (high). Probably the 1828 Nyíri "Jud: Farkas". His father possibly Josef.
RECORDS	1855 marriage of his daughter; his death record; Alei Zikaron 63 (2023) pp.33–35

Frumet Pessel (Pepi) Benet פרומט פעסל PROBABLE*the siblings' 4th-great-grandmother*

BORN	c.1782
DIED	20 Apr 1845 (13 Nisan 5605), Miskolc — Probable (high)
PARENTS	R' Gabriel Benet of Cífer and Rebeka of Nikolsburg
MARRIED	R' Meir Avraham of Csaba, the "Pri Tzadik"
CHILDREN	Rozália Wiesner; Yeta Devora (Száli, Fáni) Finkelstein née Benet
NOTES	Wife of the Pri Tzadik. Named on her daughter Yeta Devora's Budapest stone ("and her mother's name Frumet Pessel"), in Munkácsi 1939 ("Benét Peszel Pepi", wife of the rabbi of Csaba) and in Netzer Mata'ai (1957). Her death as "Csabai papné, 63" at Miskolc is Probable (high). Her burial beside him at Hejőcsaba is Probable. Her son-in-law, the publisher, names her in the book itself, Pri Tzadik (Pressburg 1839) p. 90: "the wife of the rabbi the author, my mother-in-law the rebbetzin ... Mrs. Frumit Pessel, may she live", and beside her his own wife "Mrs. Devorah" — so she was alive in 1839 and was the author's wife (Proven as printed). Burial: beside her husband the Pri Tzadik at Hejőcsaba (Miskolc), 13 Nisan 5605 = 1845 (Probable).
RECORDS	Alei Zikaron 46 (2018) p.70; Munkácsi 1939; Miskolc deaths 1845; Pri Tzadik (Pressburg 1839) p. 90 (HebrewBooks 51233)

Josef Reich POSSIBLE*the siblings' 4th-great-grandfather (possible)*

CHILDREN	Wolf (Aron Wolf, Farkas) Reich
NOTES	Possible father of Wolf Reich (1848 Kovácsvágás census patronymics and family naming).

R' Meir Avraham of Csaba, the "Pri Tzadik" PROBABLE*the siblings' 4th-great-grandfather*

DIED	26 Elul 5589 (24 Sep 1829), Csaba — Probable (a 1971 letter says 1828)
LIVED	Csaba; buried at Hejőcsaba
PARENTS	R' Yosef, called Yozpa

MARRIED	Frumet Pessel (Pepi) Benet
CHILDREN	Rozália Wiesner; Yeta Devora (Száli, Fáni) Finkelstein née Benet; Daughter of the Pri Tzadik (name unknown), wife of R' Pinchas David; Daughter of the Pri Tzadik (name unknown), wife of R' Shimon Lieberman
NOTES	Author of Pri Tzadik (Pressburg 1839). His tie to Rozália is Probable (high); the 1839 subscriber list names “my brother-in-law R' Shmaya” of Gáva. His burial at Hejőcsaba is Proven: a letter of 19 July 1971 printed in “A miskolci Avas” (1993, p.388) asks that the graves of “rabbi Meir Avraham (Pri Cadik) and his wife” not be exhumed with the rest but moved to Miskolc separately, and Paszternák (1970, p.62) describes a visit to his grave there. Whether the four old stones now in parcel VIII of the Avas cemetery are his and his wife’s is possible only — the book does not name them. Netzer Mata’ai (Tel Aviv 1957) prints a Torah piece of his from the family manuscript. Burial: Hejőcsaba (now Miskolc) Jewish cemetery, cleared in 1972 (Proven); four old stones were re-erected at the Avas cemetery, parcel VIII — that they are his is Possible. His wife Frumet Pessel Benet lies beside him (Probable). Rav of Csaba for 20 years, from 5569 (1808/09) until his death on 26 Elul 5589 (24 Sep 1829) — Probable, from the printed biography at the front of HebrewBooks 51233, which also calls him a student of R' Shmuel Kellin of Boskowitz (Probable). His sons-in-law, besides Shmaya Wiesner of Gáva and the publisher Yosef Finkelstein, were R' Pinchas David of Kótaj (d. Jerusalem 1878) and R' Shimon Lieberman, rav of Szenna — the publisher calls both “my brother-in-law” in the 1839 book, p. 95 (Probable).

MARRIED	Rivka Wiesner née Grünberger
NOTES	Author of "Ovrin ve-Shavim" (Jerusalem 1988), whose dedication names every sibling. From the article about him in Alei Zikaron 67 (Jerusalem 2025), pp.102–103 (Proven as printed): the youngest, after eight brothers and sisters; his father died when he was six; four brothers survived the war. He studied at the yeshiva of R' Moshe Chaim Grünfeld, rabbi of Sajószentpéter, then at Szántó (Abaújszántó) under R' Yaakov Moshe HaKohen Deutsch, whose letter of 19 April 1933 is printed; then at the Etz Chaim yeshiva of Montreux, where R' Eliyahu Botschko ordained him; studied in Breslau; back in Montreux with R' Shlomo Wolbe; ordination from Budapest rabbis at 20. In the war he helped his brother in Hungary from Switzerland and obtained visas of "a small South American country" for the family (very probably the source of Golda's 1942 Salvadoran certificate — Possible). After the war he headed an Agudat Yisrael refugee home at Engelberg, Switzerland, caring for orphans; went to New York to his elder brother Rav Shmaya; taught in New York, Boston and Detroit; settled in Petach Tikva in 1970. Married Rivka née Grünberger in 1949. Burial: Segula cemetery, Petach Tikva, plot טז, row ז', grave 40; his stone names his descent from the Pri Tzadik and remembers his mother "Golda bat R' Yitzhak" (Proven).

R' Pinchas David of Kótaj and Bököny פנחס דוד PROBABLE

son-in-law of the Pri Tzadik (husband of Rozália's sister)

DIED	17 Kislev 5639 (13 Dec 1878), Jerusalem
LIVED	Kótaj · Bököny · Jerusalem
MARRIED	Daughter of the Pri Tzadik (name unknown), wife of R' Pinchas David
NOTES	Son-in-law of the Pri Tzadik. Listed under Kótaj in the 1839 book (p. 95) as the publisher's "brother-in-law R' Pinchas David"; the printed biography names him as rav of Bököny, who settled in Jerusalem and died there.

son-in-law of the Pri Tzadik (husband of Rozália's sister)

LIVED	Szena (Hebrew שְׁעֵנִיא/שְׁעֵנִיעַ; not yet identified on a map)
MARRIED	Daughter of the Pri Tzadik (name unknown), wife of R' Shimon Lieberman
NOTES	Son-in-law of the Pri Tzadik; rav of Szenna for 45 years, father of the Lieberman rabbinic family. Listed under Szenna in the 1839 book (p. 95) as the publisher's "brother-in-law R' Shimon"; the printed biography names him R' Shimon Lieberman.
RECORDS	Pri Tzadik (Pressburg 1839), list of subscribers, p. 95 (HebrewBooks 51233); "Toldot HaMechaber", the printed biography at the front of HebrewBooks 51233

R' Yitzchak Yosef Blich, rav of Gáva POSSIBLE

son-in-law of the Pri Tzadik per one printed biography, or his grandson (conflict)

DIED	26 Adar 5658 (20 Mar 1898)
LIVED	Gáva

NOTES	Conflict kept visible: the printed biography in HebrewBooks 51233 calls him a son-in-law of the Pri Tzadik, but earlier research (Aleí Zikaron 66 and his stone) makes him a grandson — and a man who died in 1898 is far more likely a grandson of someone who died in 1829. The 1839 book itself names Shmaya of Gáva, not Blich, as the publisher's brother-in-law there. Son-in-law: Possible. His sons-in-law were R' Yissachar Ber Kahan (author of Binat Yissachar, d. 1923) and R' Menachem Gershon Friedman.

brother of Frumet Pessel

DIED	2 Oct 1831 (25 Tishrei 5592), Cífer
PARENTS	R' Gabriel Benet of Cífer and Rebeka of Nikolsburg
NOTES	Brother of Frumet Pessel. His Cífer stone survives (date line legible). Called rabbi of Cífer by Munkácsi; a book printed in 1830 names another man as head of the Cífer court, so that office is possible only. Burial: Cífer, Slovakia (25 Tishrei 5592 = 1831); the stone survives (Probable).

Shmuel Sándor Reinitz PROVEN

BORN	4 Aug 1894, Damak (Borsod)

PART IV

Braunfeld & Grosz

Sajószentpéter and Monostorpályi

Braunfeld & Grosz — Golda (Gizella) Wiesner née Braunfeld (1871–1944)

*Monostorpályi · Szendrő · Sajószentpéter · Miskolc · Kecskemét · Erdőtelek · Baja · New Orleans ·
Milwaukee*

Golda (Gizella) Braunfeld, wife of Farkas Wiesner, was born at Sajószentpéter in 1871 and died at Auschwitz on 13/14 June 1944. Her photograph survives on a Salvadoran protection certificate of 16 September 1942.

Her father Ignác (Yitzchak) Braunfeld was born about 1818 at Monostorpályi in Bihar and died at Sajószentpéter on 2 September 1892; his gravestone names him “son of R’ David ... his mother’s name Mirl”. Ignác was the mohel at the birth of his grandson Dávid Wiesner in 1891. Golda’s mother Juli (Rivka Leah) Grosz died on 7 March 1917 — proven from her gravestone; her parents were possibly Jónás Grosz, arendator of Sajószentpéter, and Leni Roth.

Ignác married twice. His first wife Czily Grosz was the mother of Rosi (b. about 1846 at Szendrő) and of Rabbi Sámuel Braunfeld, later rabbi of Erdőtelek (d. 1917). With Juli he had the children born between 1852 and 1872, first at Szendrő and, from the early 1860s, at Sajószentpéter: József (1852, cantor of Baja), Czilli (1855), Teréz (Rézi, 1856), Dávid (1858, assistant rabbi of Kecskemét), Ábrahám (Adolf, 1859, a cantor), Ferencz (1862), Jónás (Cantor Julius of New Orleans, 1863), Simon Sándor (1865), Percz (1869, of whom nothing more is known), Golda (1871) and Zsigmond (1872), who became George Sigmund Braunfeld of Milwaukee. Ignác himself was the community’s shochet, cantor and mohel — a family of synagogue servants from him down.

NEWLY FOUND RECORDS

Golda (Gizella) Wiesner née Braunfeld was born in April 1871 at Sajószentpéter (two certificate records). A memorial record from a son names her parents as Yitzchak and Rivka. One list compiled from religious books gives her death as 19 May 1944; other records give June 1944, and the site keeps 13/14 June. · Probable

The children of Jónás Grosz of Sajószentpéter — Simon, Farkas, Fülöp and Debora — join the tree; the records are Proven, the kinship to Juli stays Possible. Johanna née Breszlauer, József Braunfeld’s wife, is added (Proven).

POSSIBLE

Ignác Braunfeld’s children are now on the tree, each with its grade: Rabbi Sámuel and Rosi (his first wife Czily Grosz’s children, Proven), Teréz, Dávid, Ferencz and Simon Sándor (Proven — their own marriage or death records name Ignác and Juli), József, Czilli, Ábrahám (Adolf) and Zsigmond (Probable). The 1900 census of Miskolc shows Zsigmond, born 1872 at Sajószentpéter, with a wife and daughter from Kroměříž in Moravia — the same family as George Sigmund Braunfeld of Milwaukee (Probable). Cantor Julius’s wife Meta and children Charles and Gilda are added too (Probable). · Proven

Cantor Julius Braunfeld of Temple Sinai, New Orleans (b. Sajószentpéter 17 July 1863, d. 1921), is now on the tree as Ignác Braunfeld's son, Golda's brother: the American Jewish Year Book of 1903 calls him "Son of Ignacz Braunfeld", and so does his death record. His 1922 portrait is in the gallery. · Proven

Cantor Julius (Jonás) Braunfeld PROVEN*brother of Golda; the siblings' great-granduncle*

BORN	17 Jul 1863, Sajószentpéter
DIED	Jan 1921, New Orleans
LIVED	Budapest · Vienna · Brooklyn · Milwaukee · New Orleans
PARENTS	Ignác (Yitzchak) Braunfeld
MARRIED	Meta Braunfeld née Schroeder
CHILDREN	Charles (Carl) Braunfeld; Gilda Carter née Braunfeld
NOTES	Son of Ignác Braunfeld, so a brother of Golda Wiesner. Educated at Budapest and Vienna; cantor in Brooklyn and Milwaukee, then cantor of Temple Sinai, New Orleans, 1894–1919. His mother is not named in these records, so no mother is shown here. Burial: New Orleans, January 1921 (Proven, stone record).
RECORDS	American Jewish Year Book 5664 (1903–04), p. 46 (“Son of Ignacz Braunfeld”); his Louisiana death record (“son of Ignatz Braunfeld”); Jubilee Souvenir of Temple Sinai (1922) p. 99; gravestone record: Find a Grave memorial 143050648 (https://www.findagrave.com/memorial/143050648); Find a Grave memorial 143050648 (link only)

Charles (Carl) Braunfeld PROBABLE*son of Julius; Rav Shmaya's first cousin*

BORN	25 May 1889, the Netherlands
DIED	4 Mar 1967, Santa Cruz, California
LIVED	New Orleans · Los Angeles · California
PARENTS	Cantor Julius (Jonás) Braunfeld and Meta Braunfeld née Schroeder
NOTES	Son of Julius and Meta (the California death index gives his mother's maiden name as Shroeder). Private, U.S. Army. Buried at Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno, plot V 3379, indexed as “Braumfeld, Charles”, with the same dates. Alice E. Braunfeld (1891–1969) lies in the same grave, probably his wife (Possible). Burial: Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno, California, plot V 3379 (“Braumfeld, Charles”), 4 Mar 1967 (Probable, national cemetery index).
RECORDS	California death index 1940–97; 1900 and 1910 US census; Golden Gate National Cemetery burial index

Czilli (Cecília) Braunfeld PROBABLE*sister of Golda; the siblings' great-grandaunt*

BORN	1855, Szendrő
PARENTS	Ignác (Yitzchak) Braunfeld and Juli (Rivka Leah) Braunfeld née Grosz

NOTES	Known from the Szendrő birth index; one of the three daughters remembered in Ignác's obituary of 1892.
RECORDS	Szendrő Jewish birth index 1855

Czily (Cecília) Braunfeld née Grosz PROVEN

first wife of Ignác Braunfeld (not an ancestor of the siblings)

DIED	before 1852
LIVED	Szendrő
MARRIED	Ignác (Yitzhak) Braunfeld
CHILDREN	Rosi (Rózs) Grosz née Braunfeld; Rabbi Sámuel Braunfeld
NOTES	Ignác Braunfeld's first wife. Her son Rabbi Sámuel named her as his mother, "Czily Grosz", at his own wedding in 1868, and his 1905 marriage again gives "Grosz Czilli". His 1917 death entry gives "Weisz Teréz" instead; that was written by his son-in-law Weisz Mór 49 years later and is taken to be a slip. She is not an ancestor of the seven siblings (Golda was Juli's daughter).
RECORDS	Mezőcsát Jewish marriages 1868, entry 116 (read on the original); Eger civil marriage 1905; Erdőtelek civil death 1917, no. 102

BORN	Sajószentpéter
DIED	7 Dec 1899, Rudabánya
PARENTS	Jónás Grosz
NOTES	Wife of Salamon (Sámuel) Czeizler; her father Jónás Grosz, innkeeper. She and Salamon were godparents of Juli Braunfeld's son Jónás in January 1854, and Ignác Braunfeld circumcised her son Jónás in September 1854 — the strongest sign that Juli belongs to this Grosz family. Record Proven; kinship Possible (strong).

Szender, Engel & Fried

Hajdúdorog and Hajdúnánás

Szender, Engel & Fried — Szerén (Sarah Leah) Wiesner née Szender (1894–1964)

Mád · Újfehértó · Makó · Nagykároly · Hajdúdorog · Hajdúnánás

Szerén (Sarah Leah) Szender, wife of Rav Shmaya Wiesner, was born at Hajdúnánás on 29 April 1894, the daughter of Herman (Tzvi Aryeh) Szender, a merchant, and Jetti (Etel) Glück. Herman and Jetti were married at Nyírbátor on 21 March 1893; the original register entry names both sets of parents. Her sister Margit was born at Hajdúnánás in 1914.

Herman was born at Hajdúdorog in 1869, the son of Mendel (Menachem, Emánuel) Szender (c.1825–1913) and Kati Engel. Mendel's parents were Lajos (Leib) Szender — R' Tzvi Aryeh of Dorog, now Probable (high) from three sources — and Róza Klein, possibly the “Szender Róza, 84, born at Mád” who died at Újfehértó in 1876.

Kati Engel was the daughter of Jakab (Yaakov Koppel) Engel, innkeeper of Hajdúdorog, born at Makó about 1812, and Klára Fried, born at Nagykároly about 1818. A new generation: Alei Zikaron 64 (2023) names Koppel's parents as R' Yoshe (Yehoshua) Engel and Gitel (Probable) — the same note gives dates for Mendel and Kati that match the civil records exactly. It replaces an earlier guess, Gábor Engel and Borbála Ignatz of Makó, now demoted.

Mendel's brother R' Dávid Szender, a shochet of Hajdúdorog who died in Jerusalem in 1897, had a son Sámuel, born at Szentmihály in 1861. A Shmuel son of David Szender, aged 71, was buried at Košice in 1932, and his stone there was restored in 2026 (Probable that they are the same man). Herman himself also made straw hats: a 1912 statistical yearbook lists his straw-hat works at Hajdúnánás, founded 1907, with 25 employees.

NEWLY FOUND RECORDS

Farkas, Szerén and Ilona Stark (Szender) are also named on the list of the 228 buried at St. Pölten from Hofamt Priel, 2–3 May 1945, published by the Institute for Jewish History in Austria (injoest.ac.at). Farkas and Szerén's burial there is now Proven; for Ilona the list supports her Probable burial. · Proven

Béla (Gedalia) Szender: the 1953 resolution gives his alien file number, A-6440207. · Proven

Civil death records naming “Engel Jakab and Fried Klára” as parents now exist for four of their children: Kati Szender (1914), Hani Krausz (1916), Rezi Eisenberger (1916) and Ignác (1923). Hani and Ignác move from Probable to Proven, and Kati's link to her parents now has its own source. · Proven

Ignác Engel married Róza Glücklich at Hajdúnánás in 1868; they had at least seven children at Hajdúdorog: Piroska, Sámuel, Berta (who married Herman Stark), Jakab, Lipót, Regina and Farkas. Piroska and Jakab died in 1944. · Proven

Cecilia (Czili) Engel married Mózes Reichmann; their son Menachem Emánuel Reichmann, a merchant born at Hajdúdorog, married Malka Friedman at Kurityán on 13 February 1894. · Proven

Ilona Stark née Szender, b. 1906: her 1928 marriage and her 1946 death registration both name her parents, Farkas Szender and Szeréna Lindenfeld. · Proven

Farkas (Wolf) Szender, born at Hajdúdorog on 23 May 1878, was the youngest son of Mendel (Emánuel) Szender and Kati Engel, and a brother of Herman Szender: his own birth entry and his 1903 marriage entry both name those parents. A merchant of Hajdúdorog, he became engaged in May 1903 to Szeréna, daughter of Márton Lindenfeld of Nyíradony (Debreceni Ujság, 24 May 1903), and they married that October. · Proven

Farkas and Szerén Szender died at Hofamt Priel, near Persenbeug in Lower Austria, in the night of 2–3 May 1945. They lie in the mass grave of the 228 victims of Hofamt Priel in the New Jewish Cemetery of St. Pölten, where their names are on the stone set in 2015 (burial Proven: they are named on the list of the 228 buried there, published by the Institute for Jewish History in Austria). · Proven

Their daughter Ilona Stark née Szender died with them at Hofamt Priel on 2 May 1945 and lies in the same grave at St. Pölten (the same burial list names “Stark Ilona”). Their son Béla was born at Hajdúdorog on 3 Aug 1904 (Proven). · Probable

More of Herman’s brothers and sisters, read in the Hajdúdorog birth register: Czili (b. 15 Jul 1867; later wife of Péter Rothmann, Probable) and Ignác (b. 20 Dec 1871). Hani (Anna), who married the merchant Antal Izsák, died at Hajdúdorog on 27 Oct 1908; her brother Farkas reported her death. Her son Mór Izsák (b. 1902; Probable) was reported missing in January 1943. · Proven

c.1819: Jakab (Koppel) Engel, about 7, is brought from Makó to Hajdúdorog by his elder brother (1848 census remark); the family’s 1848 census household 108 with Klára Fried and children Katalin, Hani, Cecilia, a daughter and Ignác. Izrael Fried of Nagykároly as possible kin of Klára. · Probable Daniel Fried of Nagykároly, father of Adolph Fried of Cleveland — possibly a brother or cousin of Klára Fried.

POSSIBLE

Kati Szender’s sisters Rezi Eisenberger, Eda and Róza Roth née Engel join the tree from their own records. · Proven

Sámuel Szender, son of Dávid Szender and Ester, was born at Szentmihály on 8 December 1861 (Jewish birth register, entry 10, read on the original). · Proven

He is very probably R’ Shmuel Szender of Košice: the city’s burial index lists “Szender Samuel, 71”, buried in the Jewish cemetery on 28 March 1932 (20 Adar II 5692), and the new plaque on his restored stone reads “R’ Shmuel ben David Sender”. The stone and its 2026 restoration are shown on [the Schuck–Adler family site] (<https://schuckadler.com/#p-kosice>) (photographs there; not copied here). · Probable

“Szender Herman”, straw-hat factory at Hajdúnánás, founded 1907, 25 employees — from the 1912 statistical yearbook of Hungarian towns, as tabulated in Szabó Magdolna’s doctoral dissertation (ELTE 2008), p. 69; he is among the makers again in 1922 (p. 70). That he is our Herman: Probable. · Proven

Szerén’s brother Béla (Adalbert) Szender, 1911–2002, joins the tree. A 1953 resolution of Congress favouring suspension of deportation lists “Szender, Bela or Bela Aldebert Szender or Gedalia Szender” ([67 Stat. p. that this is him is Probable — the same name form appears on his 1954 naturalization — and it gives his Hebrew name, Gedalia. · Proven

Sol (Zalman) Sender of Chicago, son of Rabbi Moshe Aharon (Morris) Sender and grandson of Dávid Szender, Mendel Szender’s brother, died on 15 October 1955 (erev Rosh Chodesh Cheshvan 5716), aged 43, as his stone at Waldheim Cemetery reads. · Proven

CHILDREN	Szerén (Sarah Leah) Wiesner née Szender; Margit Glücklich née Szender; Béla (Adalbert, Gedalia) Szender; Ilona (Hentshe) Wiesner née Szender
NOTES	Merchant. Married Jetti Glück at Nyírbátor on 21 Mar 1893 (witnesses Frenkel Ferencz and Szender Emánuel; rabbi Naftali Teitelbaum). Straw-hat maker: the 1912 statistical yearbook of Hungarian towns lists “Szender Herman” among the straw-hat factories of Hajdúnánás, founded 1907, with 25 employees, and he is again among the makers in 1922 (Szabó Magdolna, Szalmakötő háziipar Erdélyben, doctoral dissertation, ELTE 2008, pp. 69–70; Proven as printed). That this is our Herman, the Hajdúnánás merchant, is Probable. Two later mentions are kept apart, not merged: “özv. Szender Hermanné” (widow), among makers not in the 1920s directories (p. 70, after Fülöp 1965) — Herman lived until 1942, so who she was is open; and “Szender Hermanné, straw-hat maker and merchant” on the 1944 list of sequestered Jewish businesses (p. 71; Hajdú-Bihar county archives IX.201/b 654/1944) — this fits Jetti, a widow from 1942 (Possible). RECORDS	His 1913 civil death (names his parents)

Jakab (Koppel) Engel יעקב קאפל PROVEN

the siblings' 3rd-great-grandfather

BORN	c.1812, Makó
DIED	16 Oct 1884, Hajdúdorog
PARENTS	R' Yoshe (Yehoshua) Engel and Gitel Engel
MARRIED	Klára Engel née Fried
CHILDREN	Kati (Katalin) Szender née Engel; Rezi Eisenberger née Engel; Eda Engel; Róza Roth née Engel; Hani Krausz née Engel; Cecilia Reichmann née Engel; a daughter of Jakab Engel (name read “Reben” in the index); Ignác Engel

NOTES	Innkeeper of Hajdúdorog. “Jakab = Koppel” proven. Alei Zikaron 64 (2023, p.62) names his parents as R’ Yoshe (Yehoshua) Engel and Gitel and his death as 28 Tishrei 5645, matching his civil death — Probable. An earlier guess, Gábor Engel × Borbála Ignatz of Makó, is now demoted (possible only). In the 1848 census of Hajdúdorog the family appears as household 108, written as “Kappel József”: 36, born at Makó, innkeeper, 29 years in Dorog (so there since about 1819), with his wife Klára Fried, 29, born at Nagykároly, and the children Katalin 12, Hani 9, Cecilia 6, a daughter about 5, and Ignác 1. The census notes that he had no residence permit, since (in the census’s words) his elder brother had brought him here as a child. The brother is not named. Household: Proven. Identity with Jakab Engel: Probable (high). Three of the census household’s children — Katalin 12, Hani 9 and Ignác 1 — are each now proven by their own civil records to be children of Jakab Engel and Klára Fried, which strengthens (but does not by itself prove) the identity of “Kappel József” with Jakab.
RECORDS	Civil death 1884; Alei Zikaron 64 (2023) p.62; 1848 census, FHL film 719824, household 108 (JewishGen 1848 census index)

MARRIED	Jakab (Koppel) Engel
CHILDREN	Kati (Katalin) Szender née Engel; Rezi Eisenberger née Engel; Eda Engel; Róza Roth née Engel; Hani Krausz née Engel; Cecilia Reichmann née Engel; a daughter of Jakab Engel (name read “Reben” in the index); Ignác Engel
NOTES	In the 1848 census of Hajdúdorog (household 108) as Klára Frid, 29, born at Nagykároly, wife of the innkeeper written “Kappel József” (= Jakab Engel, Probable high).
RECORDS	1848 census (birthplace)

Lajos (Leib, R’ Tzvi Aryeh) Szender PROVEN

the siblings’ 3rd-great-grandfather

MARRIED	Róza (Reizel) Szender née Klein
CHILDREN	Mendel (Menachem, Emánuel) Szender; R’ Dávid (David) Szender
NOTES	Proven as a name (his son Mendel’s 1913 death). His Hebrew name R’ Tzvi Aryeh is now Probable (high), from three sources: Alei Zikaron 64 names him as father of both Mendel (p.62) and Dávid (p.61), and Dávid’s Mount of Olives record reads “David son of R’ Tzvi Aryeh ... of Dorog”. His father is unknown. Family origin Zombor/Mád — Possible.

Róza (Reizel) Szender née Klein POSSIBLE

the siblings’ 3rd-great-grandmother (possible)

BORN	c.1792, Mád
DIED	21 May 1876, Újfehértó

DIED	28 Oct 2002
LIVED	Hajdúnánás · Brooklyn · Westport and Bridgeport, Connecticut
PARENTS	Herman (Tzvi Aryeh, "Leib") Szender and Jetty (Etel, Yehudit) Szender née Glück
NOTES	Szerén's brother. He reached New York in 1946 and lived with the Wiesners at 1424 49th Street; on his 1947 draft card the person who would always know his address is "Rabbi Samuel Weisner — brother-in-law". Naturalized in Brooklyn in 1954 as "Bela Aldebert Szender"; in 1950 a leather sorter in Boro Park. New: a 1953 resolution of Congress favouring suspension of deportation (S. Con. Res. 25, 22 June 1953, 67 Stat. p. B39) lists "Szender, Bela or Bela Aldebert Szender or Gedalia Szender" — Probable that this is him (the same unusual name form, a year before his naturalization), which gives his Hebrew name, Gedalia (Probable). The 1953 resolution gives his alien file number, A-6440207 (Proven as printed).
RECORDS	1947 draft card (Local Board 204, Kings); 1950 census, Brooklyn ED 24-2841; 1954 EDNY naturalization; 67 Stat. B39

R' Shmuel (Sámuel) Szender of Košice שמואל בן דוד PROBABLE

son of Dávid; first cousin of Herman Szender, the siblings' great-grandfather

BORN	8 Dec 1861, Szentmihály
DIED	28 Mar 1932 (20 Adar II 5692), Košice
LIVED	Szentmihály · Jaklovce (Jekelfalva)? · Košice
PARENTS	R' Dávid (David) Szender
NOTES	Proven: Sámuel, son of Dávid Szender and Ester, was born at Szentmihály on 8 December 1861 (birth register, read on the original). Proven: the Košice burial index lists "Szender Samuel, 71", buried in the Jewish cemetery on 28 March 1932 — age 71 fits a birth in 1861. His stone there was found broken in 2016 and restored in 2026 with a new plaque reading "R' Shmuel ben David Sender, 20 Adar II 5692" (a modern plaque; the old letters were lost). Probable: the Košice Shmuel is Dávid's son of 1861 (same name, father's name and age; no single record joins them). Glück, Rózmán, Ornstein & Fisch

Nyírbátor, Kemecse, Bököny, Pápa and Kalló

Glück, Rózmán, Ornstein & Fisch — Jetti (Etel, Yehudit) Szender née Glück (1873–1944)

Pápa · Bököny · Kemece · Nyírbátor · Pátroha · Nagykálló · Ungvár

Jetti Glück was born at Nyírbátor on 10 May 1873, the daughter of Sámuel Glück, iron merchant of Nyírbátor (d. 1896), and Betti (Borbála) Rózmán of Pátroha. A gravestone at Nyírbátor of “Frumet, wife of R’ Shmuel Glick”, who died on 24 June 1926 aged 70, is very probably Betti’s — her Hebrew name was Frumet, daughter of R’ Shimon Tzvi Rózmán of Pátroha. Betti’s parents were Samuel (R’ Shimon Hersh) Rosman, landowner of Pátroha, and very probably Sára Leah of Horlyó.

Sámuel’s father was Rabbi Menyhért (R’ Menachem Mendel) Glück of Kemece (1815–1905), whose stone calls him “son of R’ Gedalya of Bököny”; he founded the Kemece yeshiva about 1879. Sámuel’s mother was Adel Golda (Leutscha) Edeles — proven by the 1848 census of Szobránc, and by an 1880 signature “Shmuel ben Adel Golda” — not the “Chana” of earlier accounts. Her parents were very probably R’ Moshe Yehuda Leib Edeles of Véke and Chana (Hani) Grünwald (Probable); above them R’ Zeev Wolf of Véke is a possible link. R’ Gedalya (Dániel) Glück was born at Pápa on 15 February 1796 and died at Bököny on 13 November 1881; he wrote Chayei Olam, printed in 1899. His original gravestone at Bököny was found during this research, and he appears in contemporary documents — the Chatam Sofer calls him “my diligent student R’ Gedalya”, and in 1864 he sat as a judge of the Kalló court.

R’ Gedalya’s parents were, very probably, R’ Chanoch (Hench) Glück of Pápa — listed there in 1828 as “Jud. Gluk Enoch” — and Liba; a probable brother, Elias Glück, was a merchant at Ungvár and died there in 1874. By family tradition (Possible only) the family came from Prague under the name Gad.

R’ Gedalya’s wife Eszti (Esther) Ornstein (d. 1864) was the daughter of R’ Avraham Ornstein of Bököny and a daughter of R’ Yaakov Fisch, Judenrichter of Kalló, who signed in 1797 as “Yaakov Fisch ben R’ Yitzchak” and died on Simchat Torah 1843. His own stone in the Fisch ohel at Nagykálló reads “son of R’ Yitzchak”.

NEWLY FOUND RECORDS

Blanka (Berta) Glück, a further sister of Jetti, was born at Nyírbátor on 24 May 1885 and married Sándor Ligeti there on 4 May 1905. A “Berta Ligeti née Glück”, born at Nyírbátor in 1885, daughter of Betti, is on the Hajdúnánás ghetto list of 1944 (a memorial record; that identification Probable). · Proven

Jetti’s brother Herman (Ármin) Glück married Mária Reiz at Kemece on 1 June 1909 and died at Budapest on 12 June 1947; both records name his parents. He is therefore not the Hersh (Shimon Tzvi) Glück of the memorial record, who stays a separate person. · Proven

Jetti's sisters: Róza married Vilmos Heimlich (1896) and died at Budapest in 1963; Mali (Amália) Beck died at Budapest in 1956; Hani married Sámuel Ullmann (1899); Relli married Sámuel Weisz (1902). · Proven

The index row "Mari Glück, b. 1877" is Mali's own 1876 birth as copied in the district register (read on the page itself) — there is no separate Mari. · Proven

Two more children of R' Dov Berel (Béla) Glück and Eszter Grünfeld: Benedek (b. Nyírbátor 7 March 1902) and Berta (b. 13 July 1903). Their daughter Anna was born on 6 January 1900. · Proven

Sámuel Glück's first wife was Gitel (Getl) Aran, whom he married at Nyírbátor in June 1863. She died there on 12 March 1870 (9 Adar II 5630), aged 23. Alei Zikaron 67 names her father as R' Yuda Aran of Bátor (Probable); the marriage index reads "Jozef". · Proven

Their son R' Dov Berel (Béla) Glück was born at Nyírbátor on 27 March 1864 (19 Adar II 5624) — a half-brother of the siblings' great-grandmother Jetti. A bookkeeper and grocer at Nyírbátor, he married Eszter Grünfeld of Vásárosnamény; their children Katalin (1888), Reli (1890), Salamon (1892), Ida (1894), Sámuel (1898) and Anna (d. 1901) are now on the tree. Sámuel: Auschwitz-Birkenau, 1944 (a memorial record, item 1455377 — Probable). · Proven

Jetti's own brothers and sisters, from the Nyírbátor birth register: Éva (1872), Mali (1876), Róza (1878), Hani (1880), Móric (1881), Relli (1883), Herman (1887) and Dolfi (1890). · Proven

Two sons of Shmuel and Fruma Glück of Nyírbátor are remembered in memorial records: Hersh (Shimon Tzvi) Glück, merchant in Budapest — Auschwitz, 1944; and Moshe Glück, merchant at Nyírbátor — Auschwitz, 1944 (items 1339859 and 304254). · Probable

In 1836 the Chatam Sofer wrote that R' Moshe Fried of Vértés was about to become related by marriage to his pupil R' Gedalya Glück (Alei Zikaron 27). A 2026 article holds that the planned match was R' Menachem Mendel with Esther Fried, and that it did not go ahead; he married Adel Golda Edeles instead. POSSIBLE

89. Pápa, 1848. június 30. A zsidó közösségben működő tanítók adatai a pápai zsidóság összeírásából
A pápai városi tanács megbízásából június 30-án készült el a zsidóság összeírása, amelyet Szakonyi Lajos járási főszolgabíró, Horváth Ignác járási esküdt, Willax Antal polgármester, Könnye Ferenc jegyző és Slosz Salamon, az izraelita hitközség jegyzője hitelesített. A vasok összeírás felbecsülhetetlen értékű forrás a helyi zsidó társadalom szerkezetére, életmódjára, műveltségi helyzetére és mobilitására. Kiadása önálló kötetet igényel. A hitközség műveltségi helyzetére vet fényt a nyugatias és magántanítók névsora, amelyet az összeírás alapján állítottunk össze. A letelepedési engedély feltétele volt a városban lakásnak, ezért annak hiányát is feltüntettük.

Sámuel Glück שמואל PROVEN

the siblings' 2nd-great-grandfather

BORN	c.1843, Imregh
DIED	17 Feb 1896, Nyírbátor
LIVED	Nyírbátor (iron merchant)
PARENTS	Rabbi Menyhért (R' Menachem Mendel, Emánuel) Glück of Kemece and Adel Golda (Leutscha) Edeles
MARRIED	Betti (Borbála, Frumet) Glück née Rózmann; Gitel (Getl) Glück née Aran

CHILDREN	Jetti (Etel, Yehudit) Szender née Glück; Szera (Sarah Leah) Glück; R' Dov Berel (Berl, Béla) Glück; Éva Róth née Glück; Mali (Amália) Beck née Glück; Róza Glück; Hani Glück; Móric (Motitz) Glück; Relli Glück; Herman (Ármin) Glück; Dolfi (Adolf, Gedalia) Glück; Hersh (Shimon Tzvi) Glück; Moshe Glück; Blanka (Berta) Ligesi née Glück
NOTES	His mother was Adel Golda (Leutscha) Edeles — Proven by the 1848 Ung census (Szobránc, household 13: “Glük Menyhért 34; Edlisz Lojcsa 28, b. Pácin; Glük Sámuel 5”). An 1880 subscriber list is signed “Shmuel ben Adel Golda” (Probable). This replaces the family book’s “Chana”. His first wife was Gitel Aran (1847–1870); his second, our Betti, is “Frumet daughter of R’ Shimon Tzvi Rózmán of Pátroha”. A family memoir calls him the orphaned only son of his father’s first wife. An article’s death date “c.1893” conflicts with the civil record; the civil date (1896) stands. Burial: Nyírbátor Jewish cemetery (1896); his stone is not identified (place Probable).
RECORDS	1848 Ung census (original); civil death 1896; Alei Zikaron 67 (2025) p.21

Open Leads (Not Confirmed)

Questions still being worked on and findings not yet checked against the original records

Nothing in this appendix is part of the family tree. These are leads: outside reports, index entries and recollections that wait for the original record. Each carries its present status. They come from the research notes on the family website.

Perlow & Zditowski

STATUS: POSSIBLE — NOT ON THE TREE

Our R' Chaim Chaikel as R' Chaim, born 1852 in Stolin, son of R' Aharon Perlov of Stolin: the family confirms it; on the records it is still possible: no document yet places this R' Chaim in Telekhany or Chomsk after 1874.

Perlow & Zditowski

STATUS: POSSIBLE — NOT ON THE TREE

Whether R' Aharon of Stolin (b. 1826) was the son of Devorah, granddaughter of Reb Aharon HaGadol (possible), or of R' Chaim Chaikel's second wife Bluma.

Perlow & Zditowski

STATUS: POSSIBLE — NOT ON THE TREE

Novominsk: whether our line meets the Novominsk Perlows (who descend from the Stolin family, probable as printed) is not known.

Perlow & Zditowski

STATUS: POSSIBLE — NOT ON THE TREE

Feigel's father R' Eliezer as the Leizer b. c.1829 in the household of Shliomo son of Leib Zdzitovskii (Khomsk, 1850).

Perlow & Zditowski

STATUS: POSSIBLE — NOT ON THE TREE

The "Kosov" of the family tradition as Kosów Poleski, the county town of the Zditowski village Horbów between the wars.

Perlow & Zditowski

STATUS: POSSIBLE — NOT ON THE TREE

A rabbinic Perlow family of Pohost-Zahorodzki, the town where R' Asher's son was born in 1910: a 1928 copy of the 1899 birth record proves Yaakov Perlow, born 29 December 1898, son of Chaikel son of Moshe Ber Perlow and Yenta-Rochel daughter of Efraim-Moshe. Their kinship to our family is possible only; this Chaikel was still alive in 1913, so he is not our R' Chaim Chaikel.

Perlow & Zditowski

STATUS: POSSIBLE — NOT ON THE TREE

Feigel's father R' Eliezer as a brother of Shalom Zditowski, David Smith's father: David and his probable brother Shiye each named a son Leizer in 1907, and David called Feigel his cousin in 1920.

Perlow & Zditowski

STATUS: POSSIBLE — NOT ON THE TREE

How the Telekhany Perlovs of the 1941–43 list are related to Jacob Perlow and R' Aharon.

Perlow & Zditowski — still being searched

STATUS: RECORD NOT YET REACHED

The Samara archive's case file on the 1944–45 sentence of "Khaim Aronovich Perlovsky".

Perlow & Zditowski — still being searched

STATUS: RECORD NOT YET REACHED

The 1934 constitution booklet of the Telechaner society in New York (YIVO), which may name Jacob Perlow's family.

Perlow & Zditowski — still being searched

STATUS: RECORD NOT YET REACHED

The Stolin family lists of 1874–1900, which could join R' Chaim, born 1852, to Chomsk or Telekhany.

Perlow & Zditowski — still being searched

STATUS: RECORD NOT YET REACHED

The Pohost-Zahorodzki memorial book (1979), for the Perlovs of Pohost.

Szender, Engel & Fried

STATUS: POSSIBLE — NOT ON THE TREE

Was R' Shmuel of Košice the "Sam Szender" of Jaklovce (Jekelfalva, near Gelnica) whose children Dawid (b. 1901) and Serena sailed to New York in 1920 to their brother Herman Szender, 470 East 10th Street? Jaklovce is about 30 km from Košice; no record yet joins them.

Szender, Engel & Fried

STATUS: POSSIBLE — NOT ON THE TREE

A public online tree gives Samuel Szender (1861–1932) a wife Zissel Rivka Kunstlinger and a son Herman Leo Szender, later Sander (1885–1947, New York), married to Bertha Kinstlinger. Not yet checked against a birth, census, naturalization or death record, and kept apart from the Košice Shmuel until one is found. The same tree names Samuel's mother as Breindel, which does not fit his 1861 birth entry (mother Ester).

Szender, Engel & Fried

STATUS: POSSIBLE — NOT ON THE TREE

"özv. Szender Hermanné" (a widow, 1920s) and "Szender Hermanné" (1944 list of sequestered businesses, straw hats) at Hajdúnánás: kept as separate mentions until a record says who each was.
